From Phoenix.

Beech Hill, Miss., July 20.—Editor Sentinel: I again have the honor of making my usual report. The past week has been quite favorable for all crops. In fact, this section has been wonderfully blessed throughout the season. No heavy rains, no set-back of any kind, except a few games of set-back among the young people, and now and then we hear of some of our young men from some pretty girl or a widower from some good looking widow, receiving a back-set, or set-back, but understand Mr. Editor, your scribe never indulges in the game of set-back, hence is not at all apprehensive of a back-set.

The 15th was a gala day with the good people of Phoenix and Hebron. As old Sol approached the hour of 9, the people from north, south, east and west, began to wend their way to the lovely grove two miles south of Phoenix, the site of Oak Grove church, where elaborate preparations had been made, and every precaution taken to make the occasion one complete success. From the hour of 9 till near 12 the people, single and double, filed in till near two thousand had congregated upon the lovely site, and beneath the beautiful green oaks planted by the hand of nature, people came from all parts of Yazoo and Warren Counties. Yazoo City and Vicksburg were well represented. A splendid grand stand was erected midway upon the ground for the benefit of speakers and candidates. Of the latter a goodly number were present, all of whom were as busy as a fresh robbed beehive interviewing and shaking hands with the dear people. Most of the candidates delivered short addresses to the voters, setting forth their platform in a brief manner. At this point I would like to go into detail, but conditions and space forbid. However, allow me to fudge just a wee bit and mention once, Sam McKee, of Vicksburg, a candidate for Circuit Clerk of Warren County. He broke the monotony of the hour by delivering a recitation upon the Prodigal son in the form of a negro sermon, and a prayer in the same cloth, that the finances would be well-cared for, his comical manner attracted the attention of the entire crowd. Many hurrahs went up for McKee. Surely Mack is a good one. Major Tom Parsons and Hon. J. W. Oakes had charge of the pit and better barbecued meat never found its way down the throat of man.

At the noon hour our well-known Jim Keen mounted upon natural stilts, with his clear shrill voice exclaimed, "Glory to the Lord; dinner is ready. Come one, come all, and partake of a bountiful feast." This was the move of the day, and upon the campus beneath the green oaks a more bountiful and delicious dinner never was spread, which all enjoyed to the utmost. Cold drinks were served upon the grounds and the handsome sum of $300 was realized for the benefit of the church. Every one was satisfied, perfect order prevailed throughout the day, with not a rumple upon the waters. At the close of the day the people began to move towards home, with the hope that a like day would again come this way.

Locally, we are short. Mr. Jessie Parsons, eldest son of Major Tom Parsons, with his lovely bride of only a few months, are visiting his father near Hebron. Jessie is a Yazoo boy, but for the past three years has been making his home in Tuscaloosa, Ala., at which place he met and married Miss Theo. Brent, a lovely young lady yet in her teens. We wish the happy young couple a long and prosperous married life.

Mr. "Lit" Lee has the sympathy of his friends in the loss of his fine saddle animal.

The Big Black River which has recently caused some apprehension as to overflowing, is now receding.

The weather is hot and dry, and rain is desired.

Politics is quiet, except the little insignificant campaign liar is a little busy just at this time trying to get in his little dirty work, but it will all be over soon, and we trust all will end well.

Yours for a cool-off,

SCRIBE.

SILVER CITY AND LOUISE SHOW OLD-TIME RIVALRY

Snappy Game of Baseball on Silver City Diamond Scheduled for Friday, July 30.

Some two years ago Silver City and Louise locked horns on the base ball field, in which Louise lost to Silver City the last three games. And the memory of that combat is still fresh in the memory of the participants. I won't say that the mind of their defeat ranked in the breasts of Mr. A. R. Hutchens and the other fans at Louise, because they are generous, brave and true, but the desire to win out has never left them. So, I on behalf of Silver City, dared Mr. Hutchens, on behalf of Louise, to cross bats with me again. And so Mr. Hutchens, like the brave man that he is, accepted the challenge, and the first game will be at Silver City on Friday, July 30th. Game will be called at 4:35 p. m. This will enable the Yazoo folks and those at Carter, Lamkin, and the way stations to come on the evening train, which leaves Yazoo at 3:25 and arrives at Silver City at 4:30 to see the game and return on the south bound due here at 7:38 p. m. The teams that we will hire to play the game will be the best in the State. I will do everything that is fair and square (in a base ball way) to get a team that will beat anything that Louise can bring here. The game will be fast and interesting. And this will not be the last of it either. Mr. Hutchens swears that he won't stay beat, and I swear that he shall. So we will play a game later at Louise, and still later will play three games at Silver City. I have put our grounds at Silver City in fine shape and those who have seen the diamond say "it is the fastest in the State. If you see this diamond you will be glad you KUM. DR. C. B. HOLMES, Manager Silver Base Ball Team.

P. S.—If for any reason this game is called off, notice will be posted at Hector's and the pool room.

Showing Pride in Premises.

"One of the most encouraging signs of the times," says the Meridian Dispatch, "is the fact that more attention is now being paid by people who live in the country to the appearance of their homes and the general improvements on their farms. Heretofore people have, to a great extent, lived on their farms like they expected to give it up next year; the foreclosure of a deed of trust or by moving to Texas or some other State. They have not felt that degree of permanency that is essential to the highest degree of success. They have not painted or repainted their houses in a way to preserve them and add to their attractiveness. A little paint, used judiciously about the farm every year, will add greatly to appearances. It is in the homes of the country, owned by those who dwell on them, and kept in first-class repair, that the future greatness of the country depends, for the homes are the source of the greatest inspiration toward patriotism and right living.
